Jane:	Hello, Steve. How are you?
Steve:	Oh, I'm not too bad today, thank you Jane. How are you? How did you do in the exams?
Jane:	I'm not sure. I haven't got all my results yet, but I'm so glad we're coming up to the end of the semester. I really need a holiday, so I'm going camping with some friends. What are you doing over the semester break, Steve?
Steve:	I haven't got any plans yet. I don't really have enough money to fly home. I suppose I could get a part-time job and earn some money, but I don't really want to. Then again, maybe I could start studying for next semester.
Jane:	Mmm. I thought about doing some summer courses, but I decided that's not a good idea. I need a break or I'll get stale. I need to do something completely different. You do too. Why don't you join me and my friends on the camping trip?
Steve:	Well, I don't know really. Would your friends mind?
Jane:	No, of course not. They'd be happy to have you along. We're going down to Royal National Park. Have you been there yet?
Steve:	No, I haven't. It's somewhere south of Sydney, isn't it?
Jane:	Yes, it's about 30 kilometres south of Sydney.
Steve:	What's the park like? Is it on the coast, or island?
Jane:	It's on the coast, but it's very big, over 15 000 hectares and there are a couple of rivers, especially one big one, the Hacking.
Steve:	Can we do anything on this river? Can we go on it?
Jane:	Oh yeah, lots. You can hire boats – go boating – row boats.
Steve:	Row boats. Hey, that sounds fun! Um, and what about scuba diving or horse riding? Can we do any of these things?
Jane:	Well, there isn't much point in scuba diving around there aren't any reefs or anything, so there's not much underwater life. And because it's a national park, domestic animals aren't allowed.
Steve:	So what equipment do we need to bring with us if we're going? Do we carry all our food for a week?
Jane:	No. We've organized for the food to go down with a van, so we don't have to carry too much. You know Dave's van. It's a camper with a fridge and cooking things, so we needn't bother with that. But you'll need to bring a sleeping bag. I've got an extra one I can lend you if you haven't got one.
Steve:	And what type of clothes should I bring? Like, what's the weather going to be like?
Jane:	Bathers. Definitely bathers 'cause there are beaches, and the river. You can swim in the river. There are some beautiful little swimming holes with waterfalls in the river. Um... good hiking boots, strong boots and socks. I think you need a few pairs of socks because if they get wet it's often difficult to dry them. Otherwise, whatever you prefer to hike in. If you like shorts that's OK.
Steve:	And what about my bicycle? Should I bring that?
Jane:	Not really. Well, you could. There are places to cycle, but none of us are cycling this time. You will need a warm sweater or jacket for the evenings.
Steve:	Oh, that's a bit of a pity. I rather like cycling, but not really on my own.
